Let Me Know – © 2008 Richard Ruane

If you leave me, let me know
I'll wait 'til you tell me so
Wait until I hear
You whisper in my ear
You've gone away
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
And hold me

If you leave me in the spring
Snow will melt and birds will sing
Leaves come to the trees
Flowers scent the breeze
In spite of me
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
And hold me

If you leave me in the fall
The world will hardly know at all
Trouble I may know
Won't make the cold winds blow
Or winter come
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
And hold me

If you leave, I won't despair
Heal by fire, earth and air
Water lift my soul
Carry me whole
Away from here
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
And hold me
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
And hold me
But until that day
Sweet love will stay
